

Employers can supply critical information and support about their business – start inducing a new employee before their start date

Our individualised support and learning content is available in the right format for that staff member: Audio, Watch, Read or Try

Inbuilt and / or integrated diagnostics* – enable machine learning to personalise the experience for users

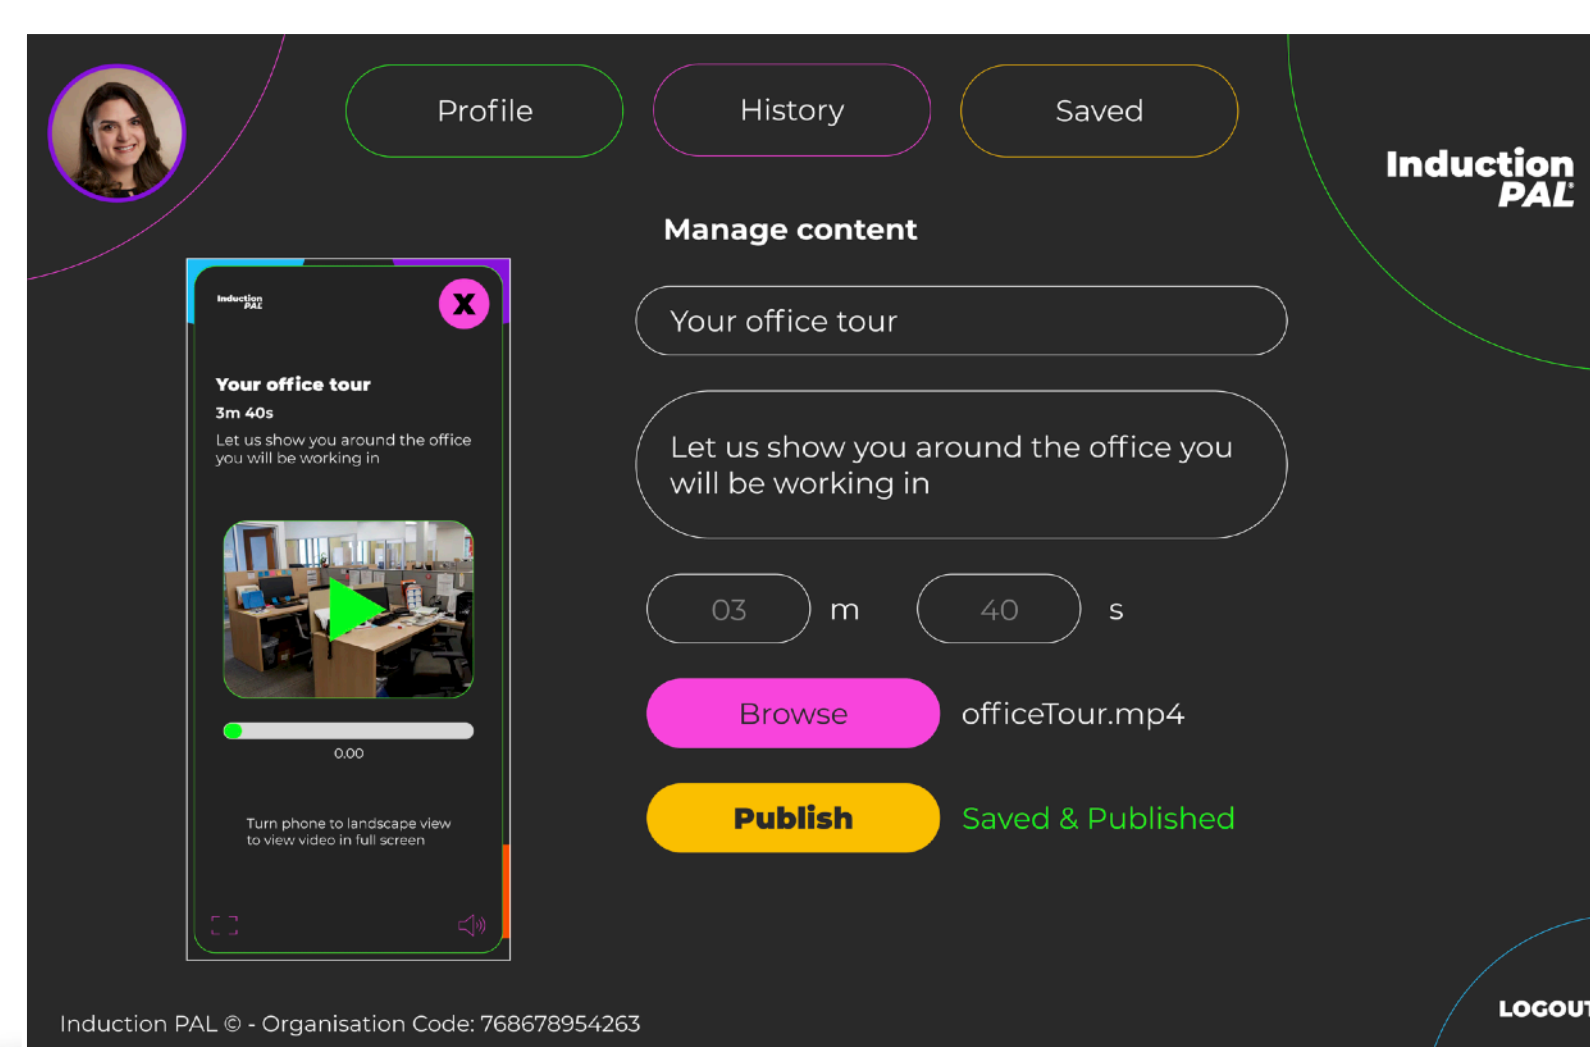

Induction PAL will not only provide critical support to new staff members in the run up to starting a new job, but also during those critical first couple of weeks in that job and in the future when they need employment support and guidance.

What makes Induction PAL different?

- ▶ Induct staff before their start date – ‘rapid on-boarding’
- ▶ Simple & intuitive employer admin interface
- ▶ Raises staff concerns before they become issues
- ▶ Inbuilt diagnostics* provide accurate profile of the individual
- ▶ Light touch machine learning enables personalised pathways
- ▶ It fits in with any size of business

Manage content, users reports & alerts from one interface
